

Flan Is Corrected Regarding Tipplers' Protocol

Oh great fellow gob-shite – elder Tippler sublime
At the risk of impeachment I send you this line.
To confirm in your brain – so you'll not arrive late
The Tipplers next Tuesday is at Gussies at eight.

The other ten members are noble and fine
They wait for their E-mails -- sans worry or whine
But precipitous you – threw me under the bus
Now the Elf I must face with "told you so" fuss.

As I said when we spoke – there's a history here
'T was the Sunday before by voice and by ear
That announcement was made by telephone line
Not only for venue but also for time.

But times have been changing – expectations concerning
The old ways abandoned by the Prof. of E-learning
So this personal note I send – it's no farce
Should keep you so happy – if not – kiss my arse.
